OFFICIAL PAPER OF CITY AND CO.
NAPOLÉON, OHIO, JULY 12, 1894.

DEMOCRATIC
County Convention

The Democrats of Henry county are hereby requested to meet in their respective voting precincts on Saturday, August 18th, 1894, at 2 o'clock p. m. at the usual place of holding elections therein, or at such other place as the township committee may designate, and select the number of delegates to represent them in a county convention to be held at the court house, in Napoleon, on Saturday, Sept. 1st, 1894, at 10 o'clock a. m., standard time, as is designed in the annexed list, the basis being one delegate for every 10 votes cast in President Cleveland, at the November election, 1892, and one delegate for every fraction of 5 and over, as follows:

|                  | VOTES | DELS. |
|------------------|-------|-------|
| Bartlett         | 296   | 30    | | Danahoe          | 218   | 22    |
| Frederick        | 243   | 24    |
| Harrison         | 170   | 17    | | Liberty          | 145   | 15    | | Liberty-East     | 138   | 14    |
| Marion-North     | 114   | 11    |
| Marion-South     | 110   | 11    |
| Monroe           | 296   | 30    | | Napoleon         | 572   | 57    |
| Pleasant-Bigelow | 192   | 19    |
| Pleasant-N.B.    | 290   | 29    |
| Richfield        | 145   | 15    | | Ridgewood        | 114   | 11    | | Washington       | 139   | 14    | | Total            | 3312  | 332   |

The business of the convention will be to select candidates for the following election to be voted on at the November election of 1894, to-wit:

Prosecuting Attorney,
Commissioner,
Infirmary Director,
Coroner.
By order of the County Central Com.
Chas. Evans, Chairman.

Now, after over twenty years, the Republican party is about to acknowledge its mistake in demonstrating Silver. But was it a mistake? The people don't think so.
They believe it was a scheme concocted by John Sherman, who was then poor, and a lot of eastern gold bugs, to debase silver and enrich themselves and their friends who were in the scheme. They have been reaping the fruits of the outrage for over twenty years, becoming every one of them millionaires, and now that they see that the people are onto them, they hypocritically come forward with their hands over their mouths and their mouths in the dust and acknowledge that the Republican party made a mistake and ask for forgiveness from the dear people! Oh, ye hypocrites, ye robbers! Now, what will the people do with them? What do they generally do with self ac-knowledgeed plunderers?

THE question has been frequently asked since the riot in Chicago commenced, who pays for the property destroyed or damaged? The rioters may destroy all the railroad property in the city, yet the railroad corporations will not be the losers. The city of Chicago is held responsible for the loss, and the tax-payers will have to foot the bills.

SENATOR BRICE voted for the income tax clause of the tariff bill.
Good for Senator Brice, say the people.

THE BIG RAILROAD STRIKE.

President Cleveland Places the City of Chicago Under Martial Law.

Since our last issue the great railroad strike has been growing, until now it spreads over almost the entire country. Most of the men out on a strike are those laying down their work in sympathy for the strikers at the Pullman Works at Pullman, Ill.
In Chicago and different localities the militia have refused to fire upon the strikers, but there have been a number of open conflicts, resulting in loss of life. Every trunk line between Washington D. C. and San Francisco is tied up. Federal courts are called upon and arrests made, and injunctions allowed, but the strike is larger than the courts and the militia, and continued to grow in immensity until President Cleveland's proclamation, which has had the effect to put a stop in a measure to the unlawful proceedings of at least a number of the strikers and thousands of huddlers and bummers who were striking terror to the citizens in different localities.

Millions of dollars worth of property has been destroyed in and around Chicago, and the entire city might have been sacked had it not been for the prompt action of President Cleveland and the national authorities.

We have just passed through one of the most gigantic labor struggles this country ever knew, but its proportions pales into nothingness when compared with the one now on, that had its origin at Pullman, Ill.

A few years ago Mr. Pullman, the patentee of what is known as the Pullman sleeping-car, found to-day on all roads, was, modernly speaking, a comparatively poor man. To-day he is estimated at $100,000,000. Whether this vast sum has been earned legitimately or not, we are not here to say, but the 3,000 laborers of Mr. Pullman no doubt has aided him materially in gathering together this enormous wealth. This being so, Mr. Pullman could well afford to be a little more lenient with those laboring for him.
Instead of cutting their wages, notwithstanding the closeness of the times, have let them remain at the old figure, even if his gigantic income had to suffer for a while. But little sympathy is extended to Mr. Pullman, for no matter if his entire plant is wiped off the face of the earth he has plenty left to exist as a prince.

And the vast amount of lawlessness which the strike has brought about, has been the means of withdrawing sympathy from the strikers. Of course the violence and lawlessness is mostly the work of the hoodlums, bums and anarchists, but the strikers get the credit for it, and had the mob there is no doubt but that the strike would have been a protracted fight with more favorable chances for a victory for labor. As it is, there are evidences of the disintegration of the strike and its end is near. The mob and the soldiers have brought this about, and labor and the laborer will again be the loser.

There is not much change in the situation on the Wabash. Passenger trains are running on time again, but the freight service is badly demoralized. A few freight trains have passed west but none are coming east.
The freight traffic at Toledo is pretty well tied up and there is no telling when it will revive. There has been no violence at Toledo so far.

President Cleveland's proclamation is as follows:

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Just before midnight President Cleveland issued the following:

WHEREAS—By reason of unlawful obstructions, combinations and assemblages of persons, it has become impracticable in the judgment of the president to enforce, by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings, the laws of the United States within the State of Illinois and especially in the city of Chicago within said State, and

WHEREAS, That for the purpose of enforcing the faithful execution of the laws of the United States and protecting its property and removing obstructions to the United States mails in the State and city aforesaid, the president has employed a part of the militia forces of the United States.

FORBIDS UNLAWFUL ASSEMBLAGE.
Now, therefore, I Grover Cleveland, president of the United States, do hereby admonish all good citizens and all persons who may or may not come within the city and State aforesaid against aiding, countenancing, encouraging or taking any part in such unlawful obstructions, combinations and assemblages, and I hereby call on all persons in or near the city connected with such combinations and assemblages to disperse and to retire peacefully to their abodes on or before noon on July 9 instant.

RIOTERS ARE PUBLIC ENEMIES.
"Those who disregard this warning and persist in taking part with a riotous mob in forcibly resisting and obstructing the execution of the laws of the United States, or interfering with the functions of the government, or destroying or attempting to destroy the property belonging to the United States or under its protection, can not be regarded otherwise than as public enemies. Troops employed against such a riotous mob will act with all moderation and forbearance consistent with the accomplishment of the desired end, but the necessities that confront them will not, with certainty, permit discrimination between guilty participants and those who mingled with them from curiosity and without criminal intent."

SPECTATORS ADVISED TO STAY AT HOME.
The only safe course, therefore, for those not actually unlawfully participating is to abide at their homes, or at least not to be found in the neighborhood of riotous assemblages.
While there will be no hesitation or vacillation in the decisive treatment of the guilty, this warning is especial-

THE LIBERTY PRESS.

By the President:
"W. Q. GRISHAM, Secretary of State."

THE Liberty Press whines like a spanked baby because the county commissioners refused to grant the petition asking that a ferry be established at Damascus, on the raging Maumee. Then, after whining for an hour or two, the Press again showed its allegiance to the Republican party by laying the blame upon Commissioner King, who will be the Democratic candidate for re-election this fall, and whom the Republicans have already commenced to fight. They will use the Damascus ferry business for political effect. So be it. Hear the Press, between its whines:

"Commissioner King, who should represent the people of this end of the county and work for their interest, was not present at the meeting. It is altogether likely that, after his present term has expired, matters will be so arranged that Mr. King can retire to his farm and stay there."

The commissioners no doubt weighed the petition well, and rejected it, for they will have the thanks of four-fifths of the people of Henry county, for it was not prudent at this time to establish a ferry at Damascus, or at any other point along the river in Henry county, much as the good citizens of Liberty and vicinity might have wished it.

To thus attack Commissioner King was cowardly in the extreme, and will prove a boomerang to those who inaugurated it. Mr. King has made a conscientious county commissioner, has been faithful to his duties and the people, and if his party don't prove ungrateful, will be the Democratic candidate for re-election as commissioner this fall. More than this, the people of the county will re-elect him, notwithstanding the threat of the Press, which don't speak the sentiments of the people of Liberty Center or any part of Henry county.

JUDGE SHEETS has been compelled to appoint a committee to investigate the books of the naughty Republican county officials of Fulton county.
The people are of the opinion that the affairs of the county are in bad shape, and that their officials are responsible for it, hence the appointment of a committee to investigate.
This must be humiliating to the Republicans of that benighted county, who have been quite boisterous in lauding their county, pointing to it and its Republican officials as models of uprightness and competency, at the same time extending the finger of scorn to sister Democratic counties.
Sooner or later all chickens will come home to roost, eh, our Republican friends of Fulton? There is no doubt but that the affairs of Fulton county are in pretty bad shape, but we hope the penitentiary inmates will not be augmented through the naughtiness of these Fulton county Republicans.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND is being praised upon every hand for his promptness in sending troops to Chicago, when he saw that property and life was in such eminent danger.
When the Governor of Illinois and the Mayor of Chicago were sitting in their offices seemingly unconcerned over the lawlessness of the strikers, President Cleveland was ready to act, and did act, for which he has the thanks of the nation. All honor to Grover Cleveland.

SENATOR HILL voted with the Republicans against the tariff bill in the Senate, which passed that body by a vote of 39 to 34. Senator Brice was paired with Senator Walcott, of Colorado. The bill now goes to the House for its concurrence.

THE Governor of Illinois ran upon a pretty big sized rook when he attempted to tell Grover Cleveland his duty.

IVORY SOAP IT FLOATS.

BEST FOR SHIRTS.
THE PROCTOR & GAMBLE CO., CHICAGO.

Oh, yes, all's harmony in the Republican ranks in the Toledo district, as the Toledo Commercial says it is, but this from the Elmore Independent don't corroborate its assertion:

"Now you see it and now you don't."
T. P. Brown, of Toledo, states positively that Hon. Chas. P. Griffin will be an independent candidate for Congress in this district while the Democratic states just as positively that he won't. Mr. Griffin is not our choice, but he would be a vast improvement over the pettifogger placed in nomination by the late deal-between the Toledo and Fulton county dealers.

THE tide of emigration is setting back to Europe and away from the United States for the first time in 74 years. In the six months ending June 30 the arrivals of immigrants has been about 66 per cent of the departures. The largest exodus is said to be from the Pennsylvania coal regions, where the men have earned about 84 cents a day during the past year. Of the 100,000 aliens that have left for Europe since January nearly 65,000 have taken passage since the 1st of April. Steamship agents estimate that 100,000 more aliens will leave the country before the 1st of October. Arthur Lederer, representative of the International Navigation Company, the Red Star Lines, believes that the exodus is due to the strikes, shutting down mills, factories and mines. During the war and again after the panic of 1873 the tide of immigration to the United States was greatly diminished, but few left the country, and never since 1820 has emigration turned away from this country until this year.

EVERY few days a case turns up to prove that the Democratic party is the true friend of the old soldier.
Some years ago W. J. Vankirk, an old citizen of Licking county, became insane and was sent to the Columbus insane hospital. At the time he was adjudged insane Vankirk was drawing a pension of $50 per month from the government for disabilities incurred by reason of service in the war of the rebellion. Two years ago, while the unfortunate man was suffering from mental trouble, he formed the idea that his condition was greatly improved and he made application to the pension department to have his pension reduced.
This was the only case on record where a pensioner had made such a request, which, in itself, was sufficient evidence that the man deserved every cent he received from Uncle Sam. The Republican officials at Washington, without inquiring into the case, stopped the pension entirely, and although Vankirk's guardian exerted himself to the utmost to have the case re-opened, his efforts were of no avail. Since Judge Lochren has been at the head of the pension bureau, a thorough examination of the case has been made and last week Vankirk's guardian received notice that the pension had been restored, together with back pay for thirty months. The old soldiers are beginning to have their eyes opened.
Many deserving soldiers who have been working for years to secure pensions are at last having their claims recognized, notwithstanding the fact that the Republican papers are continually howling about the "hypocritical love" of the Democrats for the old soldier.

So broad is the scope of modern charity that in many cases, particularly in Europe, it has taken forms fanciful if not absurd. London has three or four refuges for lost dogs. These establishments are kept up by bequests and donations.

"Xmas" is often written instead of Christmas, and the authority for so doing is that X is simply the initial letter of the Greek word for Christ.

"Remedies for toothache, my friend," said a philosopher, "will be found to afford instant relief in every case but yours."

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsville, Ind., says:
"I have been in a distressed condition for three years from Nervousness, Weakness of the Stomach, Dyspepsia and Indigestion until my health was gone. I bought one bottle of South American Serravallo, which does me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely remedy; a few bottles of it has cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." Warranted the most wonderful stomach and nerve cure ever known. Trial bottle

Anti-Option Bill.

The Hatch Anti-Option bill passed the House, on 22d ult., yeas, 190; nays, 87. The bill, which has been passed Congress for five years, is directed particularly toward the suppression of "short" selling and the principle is that no one shall be permitted to sell products named in the bill unless he has the ability to deliver at the expiration of the contract. In order to regulate short selling it was found necessary to impose a mere nominal tax upon all sales.

The bill includes raw or unmanu-factured cotton, hops, flour, wheat, corn, oats, rye, barley, pork, lard, bacon, dry and salted meat or pickled meat. A tax of one cent upon every 1,000 bushels of wheat, corn, rye, oats and barley is imposed, and upon every 1,000 pounds of raw or unmanu-factured cotton, hops, pork, lard, bacon, dry or salted meat and pickled meat a like tax. Every dealer is required to pay a tax of $12 per year as license in addition to the stamp tax named.

If the dealer shall be detected in the act of evading the law by any fraudulent means, he is made subject not only to the payment of the tax, but is also liable to a fine not exceeding $1,000, or punishment or imprisonment and confinement at hard labor not exceeding five years, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Where Women Came Last.

An Arab—meaning a tent dweller; in an equine sense the town dweller is Arab—loves first and above all his horse.
No one need to rectify the old song about him. He will lavish upon him.
Next he loves his fireman. Next he loves his horse. Next he loves his muzzle loading horse of a matchlock, which would kick any man but an Arab flat on his back at every shot, but actually, in Algeria or Tunis, he lives near a city, it is more apt to be a modern English breechloader. You must find from the busy hands of men to find the matchlock. Next to his gun he loves his oldest son. Last comes his wife—or one of his wives perhaps.

Daughters don't count—I mean the Arab doesn't take the trouble to count them unless in so far as they minister to his comfort, dietetic or otherwise.
Until some neighbor comes along and proposes to marry—in other words, to make a still worse slave of one of them —she is only a chattel, a soulless thing.
And yet she is said to be a pretty, amiable, helpful being—said to be, for no one by any hap ever chances to cast his eyes on one worth seeing. This disgrace for women, be it said to their honor, does not always apply to the Bedouins of the Syrian and Arabian deserts.

"Counselor Therefore," Sergeant Kelly, a celebrity of the Irish bar, had a remarkable habit of drawing conclusions directly at variance with his premises and was consequently nick-on one occasion he thus addressed the jury: "The case is so clear, gentlemen, that you cannot possibly misunderstand it, and I should pay your understandings a very poor compliment if I dwell upon it for another minute. Therefore I shall at once proceed to explain it to you as minutely as possible."—Green Bag.
